“ It was a pleasure working with and knowing Randy for over 30 years at Holophane. He will be missed by all his Co workers and friends. Rest in peace my friend. Cherie and Jerry Boyd

“ My big brother Randy was a blessing and rock to me everyday of my life.

Randy was the very definition of "a good son" and stood by his father and mother in their later years as an ever present help and support.

He was a thinking man's Christian with a sophisticated understanding of the Lord's great plan for us all. His faith in Jesus, and humility in life, has undoubtedly commended him to the Lord.

Randy was an American Patriot, as well as a fine and gentle man. I will miss him everyday until we are reunited on the Golden Shore.
